

Call for Internships

About the organization: Resilience Innovation Knowledge Academy (RIKA) India Pvt. Ltd. is a research based for-profit social entrepreneurial start-up. RIKA envisions 'to provide innovative disaster risk solutions today for a resilient tomorrow' through high quality evidence-based research for policy making with a focus to create cost-effective community-oriented solutions for Disaster Risk Reduction, Climate Change Adaptation, Environment Management, and Sustainable Development. Projects and assignments undertaken by RIKA India are diverse in nature and include consultancy work on Disaster Risk Management (DRM) planning, training, simulation exercises; research studies; innovation; and incubation for DRM and climate change actions.

Position: Intern

Location: Home-based

Duration: 3-6 months

Overview of the expected role:

SEEDS OF INNOVATION: This is an Innovation Mentorship Program which aims to nurture innovation and provide mentorship to innovative ideas in the field of Disaster Risk Reduction, SDGs and Climate Change Actions. The program will provide guidance to mature the innovative ideas by hand-holding and develop them for the prototype development. This program aims to utilize science and technology for community development. The intern is required to present the problem statement and propose an innovative idea. He/ she should be willing to work with an interdisciplinary team to mature the idea to prototype stage.

Preferred qualifications:

Students enrolled in universities in the field of in any relevant discipline

Key Skills:

- Knowledge of Sustainable Development Goals
- Knowledge of disasters and development interface
- Commitment and zeal to work in social sector
- Self-motivated and innovative approach
- Knowledge and familiarity with the use of databases/excel and an excellent ability to work independently
- General computer skills and infographics development
- Knowledge of app/ website development
- Flexible working hours
- Oral and written communication skills
- Comfortable with English and Hindi language

To apply: Please submit your idea at <https://rikaindia.com/seeds-of-innovation/> and send your CV at info@rikaindia.com